

AIA Southwest Washington
A Chapter of The American Institute of Architects

Plan to be an Architect? Scholarships Now Available...

The American Institute of Architects and its Southwest Washington chapter offers at least two scholarships of $2000 to graduating high school students from Pierce, Thurston, Lewis, Mason, Pacific, Wahkiakum, Skamania, and Grays Harbor Counties who plan to pursue careers in Architecture.

Eligible students must already be accepted into a university with an accredited architectural degree program.

Applications Due April 24, 2009

Application details available at www.aiasww.org or by calling (253) 627-4006.

Images Courtesy of TCF Architecture. 2008 AIA SWW Merit Award Winner. Pierce County Central Maintenance Facility.

